MONETARY DONATIONS

Online

The screenshot shows the Hawaii Food Bank website's donation interface. At the top, there's a green header with the Hawaii Food Bank logo, a text input field for 'Text HSTATE to 71777', and social media icons for Facebook, Twitter, and Email. Below the header, there's a large green banner with the text 'NOURISH OUR OHANA' and a 'Make a Donation' button. To the right of the banner, there's a section for 'Donors' with a '0' and a 'Make a Donation' button. Below the banner, there's a section for 'About' and 'Donors'. The 'About' section contains text about the 2025 State Employees' Food Drive, stating the goal is 53,000 pounds of food and $168,000 in monetary donations, which will help provide food for 405,000 meals. It also mentions that during this critical time of need, monetary donations provide more than just food, and that for hungry keiki, kupuna and families across Hawaii, it provides nourishment, hope, courage and aloha. It states that just $10 helps provide food for more than 20 meals. The 'Donors' section contains a link to purchase a limited edition Hawaii Food Bank t-shirt. At the bottom, there's a footer with copyright information and a link to the privacy policy.

The screenshot shows the Hawaii Food Bank online donation form. It has a section for 'Consider Making an Additional Gift' with a 'Enter Gift Amount' field. Below that, there's a 'Hawaii Foodbank Program of Interest' section with a 'Select Option' dropdown menu. A red arrow points to the dropdown menu. Below that, there's a 'Contact Information' section with a 'State Department Name' field, a 'Branch, Division, Section, or School Name' field, and 'First Name' and 'Last Name' fields. A red arrow points to the 'State Department Name' field.

Neighbor Island donations can also be made by selecting the neighbor island food bank name from the "Program of Interest" drop-down menu.

State employees need to add their department in the "State Department Name" box with your donation for appropriate credit to your respective department.
